3. Other Items:

a. The Board of Commissioners unanimously approved by a vote of 7-0, the Ratification of Collective Bargaining Agreement between Upper Moreland Township and Teamsters Local 107 White Collar Non-Professional Employees.

- Mr. Dodies reported that the Township Negotiating Committee and representatives of Teamsters Local 107 have reached an agreement on the new four-year collective bargaining contracts. White Collar Non-Professional employees will receive increases of approximately 3% per year for the four-year term and, in exchange, the Township will receive an increase in contributions toward the cost of employees' healthcare insurance during each of the four years. Mr. Dodies said that the terms of the contracts were fair for the Township, employees and taxpayers. He thanked and noted the members of the Negotiating Committee: Commissioners Spearing and Warner, Mr. Schaible, Mrs. DeLaurentis, and himself, and representatives of the Teamsters. Mr. Dodies stated that the Teamsters already voted and he is encouraging the Board of Commissioners to vote in favor of the contracts that will expire on December 31, 2020.

b. The Board of Commissioners unanimously approved by a vote of 7-0, the Ratification of Collective Bargaining Agreement between Upper Moreland Township and Teamsters Local 107 Blue Collar Employees. Blue Collar Teamsters' employees will receive increases of approximately 3% per year for the four-year term.

- Jean Scherp Cunningham, 4210 Davisville Road, inquired to know what is the increase in contributions toward the cost of employees' healthcare insurance. Mr. Dodies confirmed that the increase starts at 2.5% and will double over the term of the contract.
